DELAWARE

THE Town of Delaware is situated in Kas-sas territory, on the south side of the Mis-souri river, three miles above the line of the souri river, three miles above the the or the Delaware reserve, and ten miles below Leavenworth city. This town was laid off and located in February last, on a tract of land densely timbered, easy of access from the surrounding country and situated favor bly for health: already there are a number of houses going up, this is the following resources as a good and ready there are a number of houses going up. It has the following resources as a good and

Firstly-A Good Landing. The Missouri river at this point is compressed within a narrow space, the channel is remarkably deep on the Delaware side, and washes for a mile above and below, the Kansas shore thus affording at all times a safe and secure landing for steamers

Secondly-Timber in Abundance The tract of land on which the town is laid out, is covered with valuable timber, for building purposes, besides this there is on the oppo-site side of the river a large bottom, heavily timbered with oak, ash and walnut.

Thirdly—Its Position.

This town has on the Kansas side of the river supporting it, a large district of the very best lands in the Territory, while on the opposite lands in the Territory, while on the opposite side of the river there is a large and fertile bottom, teeming with population. This bottom is of itself sufficient to sustain a town of large size. This is the most accessible point from which the Delaware nation of Indians can procure their supplies. Delaware is the nearest and most accessible point at which the and most accessible point at which the country on the Kansas river can do their receiving and on the Kansas river can do their receiving and forwarding business. There are a great number of towns on the Kansas that will find it to their interest to make this place their shipping point, among them we would name Osawkee, Calhoun and others. As there is a good ferry at this point, emigrants traveling to Kansas Territory on the great State road from St. Joseph to St. Louis, will find that this is the proper point at which to enter the territory as by this means they avoid a great deal of unnecessary cans they avoid a great deal of unnecessary

Health.

This location is high and commanding, having no stagnant water near to generate disease-from its streets, there is presented to the eye a spendid view of the Missouri river for miles above and below the town, the country in the vicinity presenting a view at once pleasing and Every inducement will be given to mechanics to make Delaware the place of their choice. We ask each berson to examine the place.
